Ox Horn Helmet

A simple helmet made of enchanted Oxhorn and accented with a pair of sheepskin horns. Many modern magicians prefer this over the classic mage hat, which they believe paints them as a target.

LEGENDARY

King Breaker Bow

"King Breaker" was the label given to those who first rose to betray the King. While their efforts were made in the best interest of the people, most king breakers were hunted down and eliminated, their bows taken as trophies in a vain quest of fate, the very weapons once used in an effort to assassinate the king are now prized possessions for Royal Guards—not only for their storied history, but for the chance to get their hands on fully functional Magic weaponry.

A reminder that while so few Breakers remain, His Majesty still stands.

DESCRIPTION

"King Breaker" was the label given to those who first rose to betray the King. While their efforts were made in the best interest of the people, most king breakers were hunted down and eliminated, their bows taken as trophies.

In a ironic twist of fate, the very weapons once used in an effort to assassinate the King are now prized possessions for Royal Guards—not only for their storied history, but for the chance to get their hands on fully functional Magic weaponry.
